

Travel Award to the 24th World Congress of Psychiatry

2024 WPA Medical Student Essay Competition on the theme of

Improving Mental Health in the Global World Using the United Nations 17 Sustainable Development Goals

The WPA announces its 2024 Medical Student Essay Competition, a WPA Presidential initiative with the support of the United Nations Secretariat – Department of Economic and Social Affairs, Division for Sustainable Development Goals

Theme:

Improving Mental Health in the Global World Using the United Nations 17 Sustainable Development Goals

Eligibility:

The WPA invites medical students from around the world to write and submit an essay of up to 3000 words on this year's theme.

Prizes:

The Winner will receive a Travel Award that covers his/her costs of travel and accommodation for the 24th World Congress of Psychiatry in Mexico City (14-17 Nov), and his/her Congress registration fee will be waived. The Winner will be acknowledged at the 24th WCP, and his/her winning essay will be translated into all six WHO official languages (Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian, or Spanish). All Finalists and the full text of their essays will be showcased on the WPA website, spotlighting both the authors and their ideas.

Judging Panel:

The judging panel will comprise distinguished psychiatrists from around the world.

Judging Criteria:

Essays will be scored on their originality and clarity/accessibility, as well as on the author's evident synthesis of complex information, good academic practice (referencing), clear evidence-based conclusions, and good research integrity.

Deadline and Schedule:

All submissions must be made via the online submission portal before midnight on 15 May, 2024. We cannot accept any entries received after this date. The Winner will be announced by 30 July, 2024.
