Shigenobu Kanba

I graduated from Keio University School of Medicine, Tokyo and received psychiatric residency training at Mayo Clinic, USA. My research areas have been mood disorders, brain science and psychopharmacology. I have published about 400 scientific papers (h-index=58) and 14 book chapters in English.

I serve for Japanese Society of Psychiatry and Neurology JSPN as president and for Japan Agency for Medical Research and Development as program supervisor and program officer. I served for International Society of Bipolar Disorders ISBD as vice president and Asian Federation of Psychiatric Societies AFPA as president.

I am editor-in-chief of Psychiatry and Clinical Neurosciences, editor of Current Opinion of Psychiatry, International Journal of Bipolar Disorders, Irish Journal of Psychological Medicine, Asia-Pacific Psychiatry, Schizophrenia Bulletin Open and others.
