

Document Title: Working Group:
Implementing Alternatives to
Coercion in Mental Health Care

Document Type: Short bio

Author:

Date Created: 16 April 2021

Soumitra Pathare

Dr Pathare's primary interests are in the areas of mental health policy, scaling up mental health services, suicide prevention, implementation research & rights-based care and legislation. He has provided technical assistance the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Government of India in drafting India's new Mental Health Care Act 2017, which takes a rights-based approach to mental health care and provides for publicly funded universal mental health care. He was also a member of the Mental Health Policy Group appointed by Government of India to draft India's first National Mental Health Policy released in October 2014. He was He was the Principal Investigator of QualityRights Gujarat project (2014-2016) which implemented the WHO QualityRights program in 6 public mental health facilities in Gujarat.