Course Objectives

Geriatric psychiatry is widely acknowledged as an important subspecialty of psychiatry. Nonetheless, not all countries across Europe do have established training programs. Moreover, opportunities for retraining are limited, since most psychiatric congresses generally pay little attention to geriatric psychiatry and certainly not cover the whole area of geriatric psychiatry.

Aiming to improve geriatric psychiatry across Europe, the European Association of Geriatric Psychiatry (EAGP) has organised a “Refresher Course”, a three-day, high-quality course.

This intensive three-day course in old age psychiatry will provide an in depth review of selected topics, guided case discussions and will update you with the latest high-quality research relevant for clinical practice.

Format

Our ambition is to provide retraining at the highest quality level in a pleasant, informal atmosphere. To achieve this ambition, different teaching methods will be used including state of the art lectures, meet-the-expert sessions, guided case discussions and discussing research papers.

A main role is given to international experts. Each expert will have 90 minutes to fill in with a lecture as well as a meet-the-expert session. Interaction and discussion will be facilitated due to the small-scale of the course (up to 50 participants) and availability of the experts during the breaks.

Given the limited space, registration will be on a first come, first served basis. Registration will start on 15th of January 2026 (application form by e-mail). Your registration is definitive when your payment is received by the organization.

A syllabus with research papers and lecture material will be provided.

Continuing Education

This program is designed for consultant old age psychiatrists.

CME points will be provided. The course will have space for a maximum of 50 old age psychiatrists from all over Europe and other continents.
